SirsiDynix Horizon Selected By Seven U.S. Public Libraries

Libraries serving more than 320,000 people throughout the United States choose Horizon

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., July 27, 2006 – SirsiDynix, the global leader in strategic technology solutions for libraries, announced today that seven U.S. public libraries have recently selected the SirsiDynix Horizon Library Management System:

- Indian Valley Public Library, Telford, Pa.
- Laredo (Texas) Public Library
- Morrisson-Reeves Library, Richmond, Ind.
- Sedalia (Mo.) Public Library
- Stewart Library, Grinnell, Iowa
- Upper Skagit Library, Concrete, Wash.
- Whitman Public Library, Colfax, Wash.

Together, these libraries serve more than 320,000 people.

Morrisson-Reeves Library will go live on SirsiDynix Horizon 8.0, the most technologically advanced, intuitive and feature-rich integrated library system available today. In addition, the library purchased SirsiDynix Web Reporter and SirsiDynix enriched content.

Sedalia Public Library, Laredo Public Library and Indian Valley Public Library also selected SirsiDynix Web Reporter and SirsiDynix enriched content. Stewart Library chose the ASP (application service provider) version of Horizon.

“SirsiDynix Horizon offered the integrated library system that Sedalia Public Library needed to better serve our patrons, and the price was within our budget,” said Pam Hunter, director of Sedalia Public Library. “We feel that Horizon was the best solution for our needs.”

Steven Nielsen, SirsiDynix senior vice president of product management, said, “At SirsiDynix, we see our role as a partner with public libraries to deliver solutions that help communities in their quest for information and knowledge. Carrying out our vision involves offering comprehensive integrated systems like Horizon that assist libraries in making sense of the vast world of information for the people they serve.”
