

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Melanie Sollid
1.256.704.7127
melanie.sollid@sirsidynix.com

SirsiDynix Announces New Leadership for Sales and SchoolRooms

PROVO, Utah, March 20, 2008 – SirsiDynix, the global leader in strategic technology solutions for libraries, today announced three key organizational changes: the appointment of Eric Keith as SirsiDynix chief sales officer, replacing the Bill Davison, who is leaving the company; the promotion of Scott McCausland to vice president of SirsiDynix North American Sales; and the appointment of Tom Gates to vice president of the company’s SchoolRooms Solutions Group. Keith, McCausland and Gates will transition into their new roles throughout the remainder of March.

“We are pleased to announce these new leadership assignments,” said Gary Rautenstrauch, SirsiDynix chief executive officer. “Combined, Eric, Scott and Tom bring nearly 40 years of management experience to the company, and I’m confident they will serve the organization and our customers in outstanding ways.”

Keith has been a member of the North American sales management team since 2004 and has held a range of sales, vendor relationship and operational roles since joining the company in 1989. Likewise, McCausland is a 10-year veteran of SirsiDynix and the library community. Rautenstrauch commented, “We’re excited about the new roles for Eric and Scott. They bring the management expertise, customer relationship-building skills and overall senior experience needed in our senior-most sales management positions.”

“The SirsiDynix family wishes Bill Davison all the best, as he leaves the company,” added Rautenstrauch. “Since 2003, Bill has been a key management team member during times of significant growth and change for SirsiDynix. We thank Bill for his many contributions.”

In making the SchoolRooms announcement, Rautenstrauch noted, “Our new K-12 portal has been a big hit among school, public and state libraries, which makes now the right time to expand our SchoolRooms focus. Tom’s charge is to bring cross-organizational leadership to our SchoolRooms efforts and ensure the successful development, implementation, support and promotion of the product. With Tom’s two years of SchoolRooms experience, I am confident he can provide the leadership needed to help SchoolRooms achieve its potential.” Gates will also continue in the marketing management role he has held since 2000.

#

About SirsiDynix

SirsiDynix is the global leader in strategic technology solutions for libraries – vital institutions whose primary mission is to make sense of the vast world of information for people and communities. This is an exciting role as libraries assist people in discovering and using knowledge, resources and other valuable content for their educations, jobs and entertainment. In concert with key industry partners, SirsiDynix supports this strategic role for libraries by offering a comprehensive integrated suite of technology solutions for improving the internal productivity of libraries and enhancing their capabilities for meeting the needs of people and communities. SirsiDynix has approximately 4,000 library and consortia clients, serving more than 300 million people through more than 20,000 library outlets in the Americas, Europe, Africa, the Middle East and Asia-Pacific. For more information, please see www.sirsidynix.com.