While the Wells County Public Library is one of the smaller SirsiDynix customers, our library is always excited about the new products and upgrades that SirsiDynix has to offer our patrons.” Davis adds, “Our supportive community recently expanded our main facility to accommodate the evolving needs of its citizens, and the chosen photo is my favorite representation of our library because it illustrates how far we have come. I am extremely proud to have our library pictured among libraries from around the world in the 2009 SirsiDynix calendar.”

SirsiDynix CSMO, Keith Sturges, said, “The SirsiDynix calendar is our way of highlighting libraries of all types, sizes and locations, and saying ‘thank you’ to our customers. Each SirsiDynix library receives a copy of the calendar and each library’s photo submission is considered carefully. We appreciate all those who submitted photographs and we thank all libraries that are part of the SirsiDynix family. We look forward to continued exciting successes for our customers in 2009.”
