

SirsiDynix®

Want to Become a Library Software Expert?

December 2014

Are you looking to widen your scope of knowledge with your library software?

Whether you are a new customer or you have been with us for a while and need to brush up on your SirsiDynix products, we've got you covered!

SirsiDynix Mentor

We believe that a well-trained library staff is directly related to the success of your library. To help you achieve that success, we not only have amazing customer support, but we have implemented a robust learning management system to provide the tools you need.

Mentor offers a comprehensive 360° approach to our products and is a way for you to have an experienced and trusted adviser at your fingertips. As a Mentor user, you have access to over 100 interactive, self-paced courses, covering just about every SirsiDynix product. The best part is that these courses can be taken anywhere and at any time.

SirsiDynix® Mentor

Beyond the self-paced courses, you can peruse our instructor-led classes, available in both group and private settings.

Upcoming and Notable Trainings

API Training

Interested in learning more about APIs? We've added a new API-100 Command Line Essentials class to the API classes we offer to make sure that you're comfortable moving around at a command prompt. Learn basic API commands, how to use "vi," and other helpful tools.

If you'd like to discover API tools in person, join us on Monday, January 12 at our Technology Center in Lehi, Utah for our API workshop. Contact your account manager or LRM for more information.

Self-Paced BLUEcloud Training

Curious about the new BLUEcloud products? We can help you with our three new FREE interactive, self-paced courses for BLUEcloud Cataloging, BLUEcloud PAC, and Universal Admin. Take advantage of these free courses to discover how these great new FREE products work. A training guide for each product is also available.

COSUGI Registration

Don't forget to register early for COSUGI! Early registrants get an additional 15% off pre-conference training.*

*If you are a Platinum or Platinum Premier customer, contact your account manager to receive your training discount on top of the 15% early discount. Last year, the seats filled quickly. Don't miss out!
