SirsiDynix welcomes 17 libraries to the SirsiDynix Symphony® family
Eight current customers migrate to Symphony, nine new libraries and organizations select SirsiDynix.

PROVO, UTAH (APRIL 19, 2011) – SirsiDynix, the world's leading provider of library technology solutions, celebrates the growing community of libraries using the SirsiDynix Symphony® integrated library system for their library automation. In Q1 of this year, nine new library customers joined the SirsiDynix family and eight current customers upgraded their system to the Symphony ILS.

"We are honored to support new and existing customers with the SirsiDynix Symphony technology, and are proud to provide state-of-the-art, economical solutions like SaaS to help libraries provide the most efficient and advanced service to their communities," said Matthew Hawkins, SirsiDynix chief executive officer. "In a year of significant development at SirsiDynix, we look forward to serving and delighting these customers with an ever-improving suite of advanced library technology tools."

Current SirsiDynix customers upgrading to the SirsiDynix Symphony ILS include:

- Prince Edward Island Provincial Library
- Trinity Western University Library
- Institute of Ismaili Studies
- Bibliothèque Inter-Universitaire Pierre et Marie Curie-Jussieu
- Consortium of Scientific Libraries in Lodz
- Cape Girardeau Public Library
- Clarington Public Library
- Ramapo Catskill Library System

Additionally, SirsiDynix is honored to welcome the National Taichung Institute of Technology and Victorian Government Library Service to its customer circle, plus Universidad Técnica Federico Santa María, King Abdulaziz Medical City, Aga Khan University, Arab Center for Research & Policy Studies, Imam Malik College for Islamic Sharia & Law, Northern Border University and the Lebanese Parliament through our distributor partner Arabian Advanced Systems. Two libraries upgraded to SirsiDynix SaaS remote hosting this quarter as well, providing the best value in security, service and uptime in the industry.
