SirsiDynix Announces Partnership with Relais International

New partnership with premier ILL services to provide loan and document solution to BLUEcloud libraries

September 8, 2016, LEHI, UT—SirsiDynix and Relais International are pleased to announce a partnership to deliver automated and streamlined ILL solutions to BLUEcloud libraries. This partnership marks another step forward in the SirsiDynix mission to connect libraries with best-of-breed resources. Through this new partnership, SirsiDynix BLUEcloud libraries will have access to best-of-breed ILL solutions powered by Relais.

Relais International, the premier provider of interlibrary support systems, enables libraries to connect and share their resources with one another. Relais' industry-leading solutions provide end-user discovery and delivery, as well as end-to-end request management. These solutions enable libraries to integrate interlibrary loan into Enterprise, BLUEcloud's discovery interface, and help staff manage requests, both incoming and outgoing. The Relais International partnership allows SirsiDynix libraries to seamlessly integrate Relais-powered ILL solutions directly into their BLUEcloud LSP.

Commenting on the partnership, Relais Chief Operating Officer, Clare MacKeigan said, "We are delighted to partner with SirsiDynix as they incorporate and integrate our products into the BLUECloud LSP thereby giving libraries access to a wider range of services and facilitating their abilities to manage ILL and resource sharing activities."

"SirsiDynix is proud to partner with Relais International," said SirsiDynix CEO Bill Davison. "Relais leads the industry with their streamlined solutions. We are pleased to be able to offer our libraries access to their sophisticated solutions and help libraries share their resources and support one another. This partnership also allows us to further our goal to provide SirsiDynix libraries with best-of-breed options. We are excited by the connectivity and automation Relais solutions bring to libraries."
