

The London Libraries Consortium Awards Framework Agreement to SirsiDynix

August 1st, 2019, Lehi, UT—SirsiDynix is delighted to announce that the London Libraries Consortium has gone live with 16 authorities on a single shared platform across the UK capital. SirsiDynix was chosen as preferred supplier after a highly competitive process. The consortium is expected to grow further with additional authorities expressing an interest. Most recently Croydon Council called off the framework. The London Libraries Consortium is the largest SirsiDynix consortium customer in the EMEA region to date, and the framework offers the potential for other UK public library authorities to join the platform. We welcome this prestigious customer to our SirsiDynix community.
